Message for the ZENITH
Jacob C. Martinson, Jr.
September 25, 1987

Alfred North Whitehead once said that, "moral education is impossible apart from the habitual vision of greatness." I believe that we at High Point College are commissioned to "create a vision of greatness." When we realize that most people live all of their lives having never realized their greatest potential, we are reminded that we cannot settle for less than our best. Sneering disbelief is our enemy.

One of the things I enjoy most at High Point College is talking and working with students who always seem to impress me with their optimism, their maturity, their sense of responsibility and their achievement. It is a privilege to work with such people and I count myself blessed with more than my share of life's satisfactions.

I commend the class of 1988. You have made genuine contributions to the life of our lovely campus; we wish you well, and we will watch your future with great interest. The rising classes of 1989, 1990, and 1991 have been challenged by your inspiring example. Together, we will try to do justice to the marvelous pace which you have set for all of us.

Sincerely,

Louise Mandrell
Loves HPC

Louise Mandrell visited the High Point College campus October 23-24 to promote her concert. She visited classrooms and held a press conference and luncheon in the banquet room of the Campus Center. Ms. Mandrell became an instant favorite of the students in the cafeteria where she made a surprise appearance!

New dormitory opens its doors in '87

In 1924, R.K. Stewart & Son Construction Company was contracted to build a men's dormitory on the new campus of High Point College. Sixty-two years later the same company returned to High Point College for a repeat performance.

McCulloch Dorm had housed its final freshman class and a new dormitory was planned for construction. One year and $3 million later, the new dormitory opened its doors to a new generation of High Point College students. The air-conditioned facility includes 4 floors with 111 rooms and 222 beds. The dorm also has handicap facilities, including 6 rooms for handicapped students. Each floor contains a carpeted lounge for student use. Elevators are available to transport students to each floor.

The dormitory, which now houses freshmen as well as sophomore, junior and senior men, will be called New Dorm until it is officially named by the college.

Top left: The cupola which stood on top of McCulloch Dorm for 63 years now rests on the roof of New Dorm.

The Career Development Center

As the director of the Career Development Center, Mrs. Joyce Wainer assists students with job placement, interviewing skills, resumé preparation and graduate school entrance exams.

Through the Career Development Center, High Point College participates in an annual Job Fair held each November. This Job Fair, held along with seven other Liberal Arts schools, attracts companies of national prominence. Students are given the opportunity to talk with as well as interview with, the various recruiters.

A highlight of the Career Development Center was the "Lifestyles Fashion Show" held October 7, 1987. The fashion show, sponsored by the Career Development Center and the Fine Arts Department, was to benefit the High Point Drug Action Council. The fashions were contributed by Belk-Beck of High Point and Hanes of Winston Salem. HPC students modeled and provided entertainment for the evening.

sound. The radio station practicum provides valuable hands-on experience for those students interested in entering the radio broadcasting field.

Hi-Po

The Hi-Po is the newspaper of the High Point College community. The newspaper, under the editorial direction of Margaret Phillips, informed students about future happenings, past events and current issues. The Hi-Po, which was issued monthly, took on a very professional look this year. The increase in the size of the staff was one reason for the more polished look. Under the knowledgeable guidance of Mr. Gary Foster, the Hi-Po had a very successful 1987-88!

As attendance and involvement dwindled with each meeting, the remaining few were more determined than ever to produce a yearbook. There were many difficult and frustrating days and nights involved in putting this yearbook together. Without the caring and guidance of advisor, Cherl Harrison, this book may have never reached the printer.

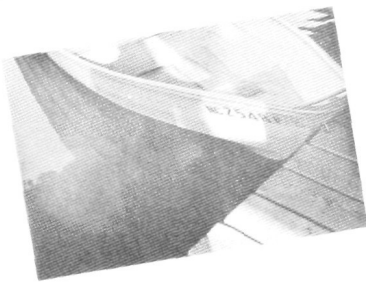

Teri, Blanca and Seema choose pictures and draw layouts to be submitted before the deadline.

Moonlight, Masks and Mystery . . . Homecoming '87

October 31st is usually a night for decking out, but several hundred High Point College students were not decked out in the traditional Halloween attire. Ties, silks and taffetas were the norm at the Top of the Mart in downtown High Point where the HPC students danced the night away to the sounds of the New York City Swing Band. The dance was the culmination of a week of activities that formed Homecoming Week 1987. Activities included Greek mixers, a victorious soccer game, and a benefit concert by country singer Louise Mandrell. The Student Union worked long and hard to make homecoming a fun experience for everybody and by all counts it seems to have been an enchanting success.

The colors blend along this gravel road —
mellow where it curves into early light; smoke-blue in afternoon shadows

Birches stand at odd corners,
firs in the crooks where the road curves . . .
dogwoods gather at the forks;
maples
line the straight stretches.

These wild wise
sentinels of ours,
these trees, their windy
words,
their sunny silence.
When we emerge from their shadow
we hesitate. Gravel trails off into cattails.

In the foreground, a cheerleader with long, curly hair sits on the bleachers, wearing a white V-neck jersey with "Panthers" written on it. Behind her, another cheerleader sits, also in a "Panthers" jersey. To the right, a large mascot head is visible, and another cheerleader is partially seen. The background consists of wooden bleachers.

It means more than game, quarter, inning,
this
living on edge,
watched.
watching.

Your soul becomes the ball, its high pause in air, its arch down to racquet, mitt, basket.

How do you live this tumult of racing, jolting turmoil of cheering.
tension of eyes, knees,
jaw —
readiness?

Your soul becomes the ball, its triumphant vivid clarity.

Women's Basketball

The Lady Panthers began a solid season with practices beginning in early October. Coach Debbie Trogdon had her team running drills, improving their ball handling skills and jumping rope in order to increase their coordination. The addition of the three-point shot to the women's basketball league was an asset to the Lady Panther squad who have several excellent three-point shooters. The women's basketball season began November 28, in the Alumni Gymnasium against Belmont-Abbey.

Volleyball

The High Point College women's volleyball team completed another successful season. The team ended their season in the finals of the Conference Tournament after losing to Lenior-Rhyne. Coach Debbie Trogdon's team played eleven games within five-and-a-half hours at the tournament. They were physically and mentally worn out. Coach Trogdon believes that the tournament should be a two day event in order for the women to rest between matches. Regardless of the loss in the tournament, many High Point College women received awards. Carolina Conference Player of the Year went to senior Anne Meyers. Junior Penny Sellars and sophomore Jimena Vargas received All-Tournament Awards.

Drill Team

Several High Point College women came together for a second time this year in order to form the drill team. Weekly practice sessions prepared the squad for dance routines performed during half-time of home basketball games. The drill team's professionalism, spirit, enthusiasm and team support are an asset to High Point College.

Cheerleaders

The zeal of the High Point College cheerleaders enhanced every men's and women's basketball game. The ladies worked continuously during each ball game in order to keep the crowd pumped-up and to keep the team excited. The cheerleaders are an enthusiastic group of women who do a great job at maintaining school spirit and continuing support of the men's and women's basketball teams.

Lady Panthers!

High Point's field hockey team finished a successful season with practices that began as early as August with 3-4 mile runs at 6 a.m. Two players, Heather Hughes and Muriel Brady, were chosen to attend the National Tournament held in California over Thanksgiving break. According to their assistant coach, Leslie Clark, "Both players could have played anywhere on the field and been successful."

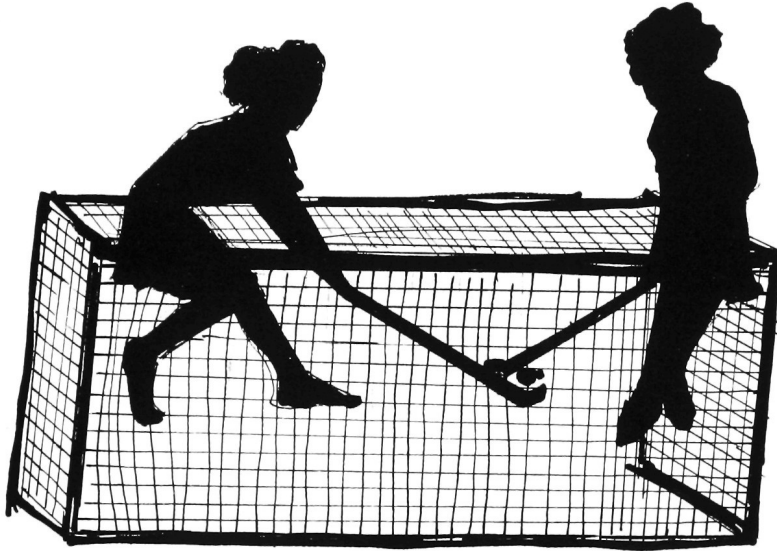

Unfortunately, the team's record of 9-9-2 doesn't show the many close games they played. Four games went into double overtime, and that's where all the pre-season conditioning paid off.

Because there were no seniors on Coach Kitty Steele's team, all players will return next year with hopes of an even stronger season.

Men's Basketball

Even though Coach Jerry Steele lost two key players to graduation last year, his team has proven that they can produce wins anyway. The High Point College men's basketball team had a very solid and successful season. When practices began October first, Coach Steele felt that the team may have a chance of being competitive at the end of the season, but the team showed competitiveness from the very start. The team proved to be almost unstoppable on their home court.

The High Point College soccer team had a record-breaking season. The team, after going into the season as the underdog, went undefeated in the Conference. They also enjoyed a nine game winning streak half-way through the season. The previous record was a six game winning streak that was set many years ago. Coach Woody Gibson believed that he had a winning soccer team from the very beginning because of the talent and the good attitudes. Mike Oser, Doug Brandon, Dexter Gilmore and Thomas Ingram were selected as All-Conference players. Brandon, Gilmore and Ingram were also chosen as All-District players.

Iota Phi's thirty-fourth year at HPC has been a terrific one.

During formal rush we welcomed twenty-two new associate members, bringing us to a strong chapter of fifty-four.

As the year progressed we enjoyed numerous dances, mixers, road trips, plus victory at the annual A.M. vs Pika pledge football game. Lambda Chi Alpha also took time to help the needy of High Point.

We served dinners at the Father's Table soup kitchen, donated money to the United Way campaign and Boys Club, donated a Thanksgiving and Easter dinner to a needy family, helped the American Cancer Society and visited the children of Mills Home Orphanage. Through all of this the members of Lambda Chi Alpha grew stronger in friendship and the desire to help others.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

The year started out with lots of excitement . . . 32 pledges doubled the size of our chapter to 65 Zetas. Being a part of Zeta extends to all aspects of campus life. We support many activities on campus such as SGA, Student Union, the Dance Team, HPC Singers, Tower Players, the volleyball and basketball teams, the cheerleading squad and the Homecoming Court.

Several times during the year, the Zetas visited the Kendall Center — a home for retarded citizens. We also had a special weekend honoring each Zeta's mother. This event occurs every four years and was a huge success.

Sisterhood in Zeta Tau Alpha is not only a chance to enjoy wonderful times with other girls, but also a chance to share the unique closeness of Zeta love . . . for Zeta is forever!

KAPPA DELTA

Hello to you too, April!

We strive for that which is honorable, beautiful, and highest and have much fun in the process! Gamma Gamma chapter of Kappa Delta had a roaring start with 32 enthusiastic pledges at the conclusion of fall rush. With smiling faces and spirited outlooks, the Delts enjoyed three fantastic dances — Pledge Dance, Sisters Dance, and our annual white Rose Weekend — not to mention numerous fraternity mixers and Crush Party. Philanthropy was at its Peak as the Kappa Delts collected dollars for the National Committee for Prevention of Child Abuse on St. Patrick's Day. The bonds of sisterhood strengthened with fundraisers, pizza parties, and just hanging out with each other on our rocking KD hall. Yes, friendship is feeling natural with another sister, shedding all pretense and just being yourself. Friendship is always found in Kappa Delta.

I'm gonna hold my breath until you tell me what ATO means. (Lynn Weigand)

The Alpha Gams here at High Point College share something special and unique that sets us apart from the rest. "We Are Family" exemplifies what Alpha Gamma Delta is all about. This year, Alpha Gams have become involved in various sports and activities on campus and many of our sisters hold offices in Student Government and have been nominated for honors such as Homecoming Court, "Who's Who", and Greek of the Year. This year, the Alpha

Going Greek!

A traditional Rite of Spring at High Point College is Greek Week. The 1987 version included a faculty/student softball game, the Michael Bird concert, a bong show, a banner contest, an awards ceremony and receptions for the entire college community.

In the making . . .

Because of the great popularity of Carl Rosen with the High Point College students, the singer and musician made a return visit to the campus. But this second visit was no ordinary concert. The entertainer liked the students so much that he wanted to tape his promotional video at High Point College using HPC students as his audience!

The New Dorm . . . a proud addition to High Point College's Campus

Leavers of the pack . . . '87 grads

These four years,
Only a pinpoint in time.
Growing, learning, sharing,
Finding out who you really are.
Sometimes the days seemed endless,
Sometimes they passed too quickly.
All those tomorrows are now yesterdays,
So it must be time to move on.
We'll take with us the memories,
Knowledge, tears, laughter, friends.
It's time to move on
We have finally emerged.
